

Eight Brown Goldstein Levy Attorneys Selected for Lawdragon's 500 Leading Plaintiff Employment Lawyers Guide

October 21, 2020

The 2020 edition of the Lawdragon 500 Leading Plaintiff Employment Lawyers includes eight attorneys from Brown Goldstein & Levy. Selected by rigorous research and journalistic vetting, Lawdragon's third annual list recognizes lawyers nationwide who have dedicated their careers to protecting workers and unions. The selection recognizes achievements in cases involving discrimination, wage and hour violations, and whistleblowers, as well as individual employment claims, and other civil rights litigation.

Brown Goldstein & Levy is honored to be recognized as a national leader in fighting for the rights of workers. We are particularly proud that almost 40% of our 21 lawyers were selected for this list and that our small Baltimore-based law firm has over 1.5% of the nation's leading plaintiff employment lawyers.
